

You have to pass the Italian language test...

... if you are a non EU citizen residing in Italy according to the law for at least 5 years, in possession of a valid residence permit and if you are over 14

... and you want to apply for a long stay EU residence permit.

How?

Since 9 December 2010 you have to pass the Italian language test on a pre-intermediate level (A2 level according to the Commune European Outline of Reference /QCER) mailing your request by web to the address http:// testitaliano.interno.it.

The A2 QCER level certifies that candidates are able to understand sentences and expressions concerning fields of immediate relevance (personal informations, family, work), to express immediate needs, to describe situations and events, even regarding the past, in a simple way.

Where?

For foreigners living in the Province of Cagliari the tests will take place in Scuola Media Statale Manno Alziator – Via del Collegio 14/16 – Cagliari.

When?

In the first semester of 2011 there have been individuated three ordinary sessions on February 7th, April 11th and June 6th at 8.00 o'clock, with the possibility of other extraordinary sessions.

More information

For more information on the Decree of 4 June 2010 – Ministry of Home Affairs, regarding the Italian language knowledge test foreseen by the article 9 of the legislative decree 286/1998, consult the site of the Ministry of Home Affairs www.libertaciviliimmigrazione.interno.it

You don't have to take the Italian language test

if you are a non EU citizen:

1. afflicted with serious limitations of ability of learning languages deriving from your age, pathologies or handicap, you have to attach to the requested documents a health certificate issued by a public health department;
2. in possession of study grades or professional titles (a first or second grade Italian secondary school diploma or certificates of participation in university courses, masters or doctorates);
3. that you entered Italy according to Testo Unico (immigration law) and you carry out one of the activities indicated in the dispositions of Testo Unico article 27, paragraph 1, letters a), c), d), e) and q);
4. in possession of certificates or titles that attest to the Italian language knowledge on a level non lower than a preintermediate level(A2 level of the Commune European Outline of Reference for language knowledge) issued by the following certificating bodies recognized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and The Ministry of Education, University and Research: University of Rome Three, University for Foreigners of Perugia, University for Foreigners of Siena and the Society Dante Alighieri.

Recognized bodies issuing certificates

In the Province of Cagliari the recognized bodies where you can pass an exam in order to obtain the Italian language knowledge certificate that exempts you from the obligation of passing the test are exclusively the following ones:

•Scuola Media Statale Manno Alziator (First Grade State Secondary School Manno Alziator)

Via del Collegio 14/16 – Cagliari
Phone: 070/668969

The Italian language classes are free, but the number of participants is limited.

•Associazione Interculturale NUR (Intercultural Association NUR)

Via dei Colombi 1 - 4th floor, Cagliari
Phone: 070/301381 – email assonur@gmail.com

The Association NUR periodically organizes the Italian language classes. However, it always guarantees the institutional activity as an examination centre.
